1.Inspections of the delivery items

MAHLE only shall inspect the delivery items in respect to the type and the quantity ordered based on the shipping / delivery documents and to externally visible damage arising from transport. MAHLE shall promptly notify the Supplier in writing of all defects which are identified in the normal course of business as soon as they are identified. With regard to defects which are not identified within the course of the limited inspection by MAHLE pursuant to this section the Supplier hereby waives the objection of delayed notification of defects.

2.Miscellaneous

This purchasing document is governed by the Terms and Conditions of Purchase of that country in which the ordering company of the MAHLE Group is based. The Terms and Conditions of Purchase can be found on the MAHLE website at www.mahle.com.

The General Terms and Conditions of Business or other different conditions of the supplier shall not apply.

The Supplier shall comply with the MAHLE Supplier Code of Conduct ("MAHLE Supplier Code") as amended from time to time, which is accessible at <https://www.mahle.com/de/about-mahle/compliance/>, and bind its own suppliers to compliance with the MAHLE Supplier Code.

3.Governing law and legal venue

This purchase document and any dispute arising in connection with this or from its execution shall be subject exclusively to law of Mexico with the exclusion of the UN – Convention on Agreements for the International Sale of Goods - CISG and with exclusion of its conflict of law provisions. Provisions in the warranty agreement and in tooling agreements shall take precedence over the provisions above in section in the event of conflicts.

The competent courts of Mexico shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to resolve all disputes that will or may arise from the legal relations between MAHLE and the MAHLE Suppliers or in connection herewith, claims for damages included.

Notwithstanding these provisions, MAHLE shall be entitled at its option to assert claims against the Supplier at its respective registered office in accordance with the local law.
